

Visiting Arts Information Sheet

Galleries available to hire for exhibitions in the UK

Below is a list of galleries that offer exhibition spaces for artists and curators to hire. Please contact the galleries directly for detailed information on the spaces, rates, conditions of hire, timetable etc. It is advisable to get in touch well in advance of a proposed exhibition as galleries are usually booked quite far in advance.

Please note this is not a definitive list. If your gallery is not listed and you would like it to be, then please contact information@visitingarts.org.uk

Visiting Arts aims to strengthen intercultural understanding through the arts

We:

- Provide information and intelligence in order to strengthen intercultural dialogue
- Create opportunities to experience intercultural exploration. This is done through
- Mediated performances, exhibitions, and by initiating and promoting collaborations
- Expand the skills and knowledge of existing cultural players and develop new talent to ensure a wide, diverse and sustainable group of players.

Visiting Arts' work links England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland with countries overseas prioritised by the Board

Among other things we:

- Create, produce and distribute authoritative directories and help-sheets, targeted briefings and the latest advice through print, web and word of mouth
- Organise seminars, conferences and networking events to deepen intercultural understanding.
- Establish and foster opportunities for ground-breaking artist exchanges, promote cutting edge exhibitions and contribute to some of the world's biggest and most innovative festivals

From Afghanistan to Zanzibar, we work with the most exciting next generation of artists and cultural players, inviting them to the UK, expanding knowledge and horizons and championing intercultural working.

Visiting Arts is an independent registered charity, which was set up in 1977.

Visiting Arts is funded in 2007/07 by British Council, Arts Council England, Scottish Arts Council, Arts Council Wales, Arts Council Northern Ireland and the Department for Culture, Media and Sport.

The Board is chaired by Sir Gordon Conway. Other Board Members are Cathie Boyd, Ajay Chhabra, Graham Long and Romesh Gunsekera.
